

New Pool May Open Yet, Free

The new swimming pool on E. Sierra Madre Blvd. may be opened for a few days the end of this month or early in October, City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington told the City Council Tuesday night.

The pool, Mr. Bevington said, will have to be filled and tested in any event, so it may as well be opened to the public, weather permitting.

Mayor Charles H. James added a certain-to-be-appreciated comment when he said:

"Maybe we can open the pool for a free weekend."

The pool, which when fully completed will cost about $95,000, originally was scheduled to be ready for use about the 15th of August. The strike of area plumbers, however, delayed work more than a month.

The Canyon Pool, opened later in the summer after the plumbers' strike, will be in use for the last time this Sunday.

The Red Cross will end its swim school with a splash party at 9 a.m. tomorrow in the old pool.

GIRLS CAN DO almost anything these days, including sailing a boat, as the photo illustrates. The girls are demonstrating how they plotted their course during their summer cruise with the Mariner Scouts aboard the "Resolute." They learned how to sail the "Resolute" so well the boat's captain said that "if anything happened to me the girls could have charted their course home, and made it." From left are Helen Jean Hippenstiel, Muriel Peterson, Susan Maloney and Tod Draeger. Others who made the cruise are Karen Morris, Mary McWade, Dodie Bush, Diane Twedell, Carol Fedn, Carole Rudolph, Susan Portland, Janice Royall, Genie Hargraves, Kathy Stewart, Margot Hays, and the skipper, Marjorie Peterson, and captain, Ed Fabian.

Local Girl Teaches in Venezuela

A high-flying school marm, Carol Rondeau, 26-year-old daughter of the Louis Rondeaus, 59 W. Carter, has landed in Caracas, Venezuela, to begin a year's teaching.

Educated in the East and at UCLA, Carol taught for six years in the Pasadena school system until she took a year's leave of absence for the South American post.

She will teach in the private school of the Creole Oil Co., "Escuela Campo Alegre," where her students will be children of American employees of the oil firm.

Carol left Sierra Madre Aug. 22, flew to New Orleans and then on to Havana and Caracas. She reports to her family that the climate is wonderful, school runs from 8 a.m. until 3 p.m. without siesta, and she is determined to learn Spanish as spoken in Venezuela.

A clipping from a welcoming news story in the Caracas newspaper reports that Carol is a bull fight aficionado and will soon have an opportunity of seeing a "re-jonador" in the opening of the bull-fighting season.

Woman's Hip Fractured in Bike Accident

Mrs. Alta Robinson, 502 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., is convalescing in St. Luke Hospital following injuries received when she was struck by a bicycle.

Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Verma Strahl, 495 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., were crossing Colorado St. in Pasadena when a 13-year-old boy on a bicycle ran into them and knocked the women down.

X-rays revealed that Mrs. Robinson had suffered a fractured left hip. She had fractured the same hip just about two years ago.

Mrs. Strahl was released after X-rays showed no broken bones. However, she was severely bruised.

Kiwanis Plan Barbecue Today

A barbecue and swimming party will be held this Thursday evening by members of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club and their wives at the home of Dr. Milton Valois, 520 E. Laurel.

Assisting Dr. and Mrs. Valois are Emile Smith, Charles Louk, Henry Nelson, Larry Lomax, club president, and E. R. Mitchell. The party will start at 5 p.m.

PTA Picks Chairmen, Shifts Events Agenda

Two major changes in traditional PTA activities were made by the incoming Sierra Madre PTA Executive Board at its first meeting last week, Mrs. Charles Fretz, second-term co-president, announced yesterday.

The Board also appointed new officers, necessary because of resignations, and shifted some office holders' positions.

CHANGES approved by the Executive Board, but subject to further approval of the PTA membership, include:

1. The regular monthly association meetings will be held on the third Monday of every month, instead of on Wednesday.

2. The PTA Carnival, customarily held near Halloween, will be moved to April, 1958, and the second PTA Extravaganza will be held in October. Mrs. Fretz said this action was taken to relieve the load on the room representatives during the beginning months of school.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dunnagan are chairmen for both events.

PAPER DRIVES held in cooperation with the two Sierra Madre city schools will be continued, and the Board will again act as hosts at the annual teachers' luncheon on Tuesday, Sept. 17, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Thayer, 201 W. Carter.

Mrs. Henry Danowsky is chairman of the luncheon committee, with Mrs. Malcolm Birch, Mrs. James Dunnagan, Mrs. Morgan Hamers and Mrs. William Stone assisting.

On Sept. 18, the opening day of school, the PTA will hold coffee hours to welcome new mothers and renew friendships among the old.

Funny, Fancy Dress to Vie Halloween

A costume contest — for funniest, most beautiful, and most original — is scheduled for Halloween evening in City Park.

The program, planned for children from pre-school through sixth grade, plus a teen-agers dance, is sponsored by a committee of the Coordinating Council, headed by Mrs. Edward Verreux.

All churches, civic and service organizations in town are being asked to participate in the community project.

"What we are trying to do," Mrs. Verreux said, "is to interest our children in something that is more fun than trick-or-treating, which ends in sacks full of sticky and not very digestible loot."

Working with the chairman are Mrs. Lewis George Jr., Mrs. Robert Forney and Clint Symonds.

EDWARD E. HAWKINS will be the new principal of Sierra Madre School when it opens Sept. 18. Mr. Hawkins, whose home is in Duarte, taught for six years in the Hermosa Beach city schools, the last year as principal. He received a Bachelor of Science Degree in education at the University of Georgia, a Master's Degree at West Virginia University and has done advance work at USC. He and his wife, Jane, have two boys, Mark, 8, and Wayne, 5.

Goldburgs Return Home--in Sections

"Hello," from the Queen of England and "How are you?" from Mrs. Fred Hawkins, wife of the Sierra Madre News plant superintendent, were two of the vocal high spots in the European travels of the Milton Goldberg family this summer.

Setting off in all directions early in July, Mr. Goldberg and son Michael went to New York as part of the Southern California Scout Troop bound for the International Jamboree, while his wife took off for a far-ranging tour of the continent.

Mr. Goldberg, heading his group of 29 boys, went to the national jamboree at Valley Forge and then to Montreal, Canada, where 1,400 Scouts and leaders sailed for England.

AT THE AUG. 1-12 encampment at Sutton Coldfield Park in Birmingham, Mrs. Hawkins, who also left Sierra Madre in July, descended on the local troop with a welcome to her former country.

Then, while walking the aisles of a local hospital, Mr. Goldberg was suddenly confronted by Queen Elizabeth. He confesses that he doesn't remember which one said "Hello!" first, but was delighted by the warm salutation of England's queen.

Meanwhile, back on the continent, Mrs. Goldberg and Mrs. Henry Rice of South Pasadena traveled in Switzerland, Italy, Austria and Germany; met with the staff side in England and then went to the Scandinavian countries for an extended visit.

After a final meeting in Paris, Mrs. Goldberg left Europe by plane, her husband by ship. All of them, including daughter Roberta who summered in Menlo Park with an aunt, have finally reached their Ramona Ave. home—in sections.

Besides his trial duties in the office of the U.S. Attorney General, Mr. Phillips has been an editorial contributor on international affairs to the Saturday Evening Post.

Barbers Hold Hairline—$1.75

Haircuts in Sierra Madre will still cost $1.75 despite an increase to $2 per head as recently decided by the Master Barbers Association. Both local barbershops reported they will stick to the old price, for the time being, at any rate.

Two Top City Officials Submit Resignations

Final Rites For Jessie Sprague

Private funeral services were held Saturday for Jessie E. Sprague, 53, who died Thursday at Pottenger's Sanatorium in Monrovia. Dr. Stuart Innerst of First Friends Church in Pasadena spoke at the service.

Miss Sprague was born in Sheboygan, Mich., moving into her home at 546 N. Lima about 10 years ago.

Although almost an invalid for the latter part of her life, Miss Sprague was active in the local Democratic Club, wrote occasionally for Los Angeles papers, and worked for the American Friends Service Committee.

She is survived by her brother, Don A. Sprague of Birmingham, Mich.

M. E. Neelands office, it was announced yesterday by Manager Emmett R. Mitchell.

Mr. Neelands joined First Western in March, 1956, and was assigned to the bank's Pasadena main office before moving to the Sierra Madre office in July of last year. He has had seven years' banking and credit experience.

A graduate of the University of Southern California, Mr. Neelands has been active in the American Institute of Banking and is a member of the Sierra Madre Lions Club.

Fined $50 for Furnishing Liquor to Boys

Joseph J. Serrano, 25, of 368 W. Highland, was sentenced to a $50 fine or 10 days in jail Thursday when he pled guilty to furnishing two Sierra Madre juveniles with liquor, according to local police.

Serrano was sentenced by Judge Joseph A. Sprinkle in Pasadena Municipal Court. He was released on payment of fine.

The two youths were arrested a week ago on drunk charges and the District Attorney's office sought complaints from their parents against the person who procured the liquor. The youths will appear in Juvenile Court Sept. 21.

Two Arrested on Drunk Charges

Local police filed charges this week for drunkenness against Harry George Rose, 60, 365 Auburn; and James Arthur Gadd, 47, 6 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Rose was arrested Friday at 9 p.m. in the street in front of 60 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. Gadd was picked up Sunday at 4:11 a.m. in the entrance to the Central Garage at 4 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

W. H. Noel, Hartley Green Quit Positions

The resignations of two city employees—the public works superintendent and the recreation director—were regretfully accepted by the City Council Tuesday night.

William H. Noel, public works superintendent and temporary superintendent of the Water Department, resigned, "due to a recurring health condition," effective Sept. 9.

Hartley Green also submitted his resignation, effective Sept. 15. Mr. Green said he will not have time to continue as recreation director since he is returning to graduate school and also will handle a full-time teaching job.

THUS THREE city officials have quit their jobs within the past month. The first was Councilman Lorne Pratt who resigned to take the position of managing director of Hesperia Inn.

Members of the City Council met privately at the close of Tuesday night's session to discuss the appointment of a councilman to fill Mr. Pratt's unexpired term, which would have ended in about six months.

The Council is expected to appoint Mr. Pratt's successor at the next meeting Sept. 24. Mr. Noel, whose home is in Glendora, was made public works superintendent and temporary superintendent of the Water Department last February. He had been working in the Water Department about a year at that time.

Mr. Noel was street superintendent here for a few months in 1952. He was then recalled to military service and served with the Seabees for four years before returning to Sierra Madre.

Mr. Green was appointed recreation director here about seven months ago to succeed Philip Mitchell. His home is in Pasadena.

IN OTHER action, the Council:

1. Discussed but took no action on an application for a closed TV circuit filed by Skiatron TV Inc. of Los Angeles.

2. Awarded a bid to W. R. Wilkinson Co. for the improvement of Rancho Rd., Carter Ave. and Michillinda. The company's bid, lowest of three, is $1,62 a lineal foot, some 12 cents higher than the estimate. Homeowners in the affected areas will be billed the additional 12 cents, a move which probably will raise the average individual fee about $7.

3. Discussed the possibility of requiring city residents to buy uniform trash containers to make the collection of rubbish easier following the ban on outdoor incinerator burning Oct. 1.

The Council took no action, however, and probably will await an expression of public opinion before making a decision.

4. Granted merit pay increases to the following city employees: Sgt. Robert Heasley, Patrolman James C. Heasley, and Hiram Embree, all of the Police Department; Thomas McNeely, Water Department; and Beatrice Thompson, City Hall secretary.

Civic Service Group Opens Fall Program

The fall season of the Sierra Madre Civic Service Group will open Monday, Sept. 16, with a dinner at 6:30 at the Woman's Clubhouse.

The speaker will be Larry Lomax, business administrator of the new Sierra Madre Hospital, according to Emile Smith, program chairman.

Mr. Lomax, former secretary of the group, currently is president of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club.

He will discuss the general aspects of the hospital from the layman's viewpoint. Few communities of the size of Sierra Madre have local hospital facilities.

The annual election of officers and committee appointments will also be made.

The speaker for the October meeting at the Woman's Clubhouse on Oct. 21 will be Dr. Lowell Jackson, the new Sierra Madre superintendent of schools, Mr. Smith announced.

Splash Party Tomorrow at Canyon Pool

A 9 a.m. splash party, to be held tomorrow at the Canyon Pool, winds up the summer's Red Cross swim campaign in a wet whirl of swimming and diving contests and games.

All of the 200 swimmers who took part in the two Red Cross groups are invited to participate, according to Mrs. Audrey Smith who has been in charge of the program.

Ribbons are to be given for best form in swimming and diving. Parents are urged to come along and watch their children demonstrate aquatic skills.

HOISTING THESE four beautiful salmon are Chuck Ower, of the Toy and Patio Village, and Louis Vangon, 174 N. Mountain Trail, who recently returned from a two-week fishing trip at the mouth of the Klamath River in northern California. The fishermen were accompanied by their wives.

Old-Fashioned Recipes Are Mrs. Bettencourt's Favorites

By Toni Maurin—SY. 7-9634

Although Mrs. Robert (Gay) Bettencourt, 175 S. Lima, is up to date in her life, she still clings to some of the old-fashioned tried and true recipes. It is well that she should, as these two that she gave me are delectable. I try to keep a loaf of the bread in my freezer at all times.

NUT BREAD

1 cup sugar
1 cup milk
3 tsp. baking powder
1 cup chopped nuts
(English walnuts or pecans)
1 egg
1 tsp. salt
2 1/2 cups sifted bread flour

In a large bowl sift dry ingredients together and then add beaten egg and milk and stir.

Add nuts and pour into a bread pan. Let stand for 20 minutes and then bake in a pre-heated 375°F. oven for 40 minutes or until bread pulls away from sides and a broom straw tests clean.

Cool completely and slice very thin. Serve with butter or cream cheese. This bread is easier to slice if made a day in advance.

LEMON FUDGE PUDDING

1 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. salt
5 tbs. lemon juice
1 1/2 cups milk
3 egg whites beaten stiff but not dry
4 tbs. flour
2 tbs. melted butter or margarine
grated rind of one lemon
3 well beaten egg yolks

Combine dry ingredients and butter. Add lemon juice and rind. Add this to beaten egg yolks that have been combined with milk. Mix well and fold in whites. Pour in greased custard cups or 9-inch baking dish.

Bake in a pan of water as you would a custard in a pre-heated 325°F. oven for 45 minutes. Serve hot or cold, either plain or topped with whipped cream.

You are in for a surprise with this pudding. The bottom will be a smooth lemony custard sauce and the top will be a sponge cake.

She has been married 10 years, during which time she worked as a teacher and as a member of the Board at the Sierra Madre Nursery School until the birth of her daughter, Janet, seven years ago.

She is a member of long standing of the Civic Club, having served in almost every office. This year she is group participation chairman of the Red Cross Blood Bank as well as a Blue Bird leader.

She lives here and she feels that she owes it to the town and to the people to do whatever she can to make it a better place to live and to take her part in civic activities.

Mrs. Clara Hollowell, president, has announced the program chairman, Mrs. Florence E. Burger, has planned the day's entertainment to honor the state's admission to the Union.

A California Flats theme will be carried out with Spanish songs, dances and instrumental music presented by members from the Artists-Musicians Guild of Pasadena.

Guests of honor will include the president and financial secretary of National Retired Teachers Association, Dr. Ethel Perry Andrus, and Miss Alice Relfertman, and Miss Cecelia O'Neill, president of the state organization of retired teachers.

Family Fun, Interesting Exhibits Await Los Angeles Fair Visitors

"Let's go to the Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona."

That's one morning suggestion you can count on to get the support of the entire family, says the Automobile Club of Southern California.

The Southland exposition, which is scheduled from Sept. 13 through 29, this year shapes up as one of the most colorful and interesting fairs in the 30-year history of the event, the Club's Touring Bureau reports.

Among its special attractions is the First Annual Junior Technical Science Exhibition, an event designed to encourage students in the seventh through twelfth grades to display examples of their creative abilities in science and mathematics. The exhibit will be housed in a new, $200,000 building which will also provide display space for chemical exhibits of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Another of the fair's attractions will be the Ringling Brothers Circus during the first 10 days (including two Sunday matinees), followed by a championship rodeo the remaining seven nights and closing afternoon. Of course, there'll also be the regular daily racing program, which includes two harness and two quarter horse races and eight events devoted to thoroughbreds.

Returning to the fair after a two-year absence will be the popular gem, rock and mineral show, which will display a hundred cases of cut and polished stones and an industrial mineral exhibit of ores.

All of these attractions, plus displays of arts and crafts, livestock, dairy products and prize specimens from orchard, field and garden, are but a few of the fair's activities.

Only 26 miles from Los Angeles to the fair grounds, the shortest route follows the San Bernardino Freeway east until the off-ramp at Gaucha Boulevard. There are adequate directional signs from this point to the fair.

RACES—Among the fair's numerous attractions is the daily racing program which includes harness, quarter horse and thoroughbred events. In the background is sky wheel, largest in the Nation.

Organize New Church Group

Thirty-three couples of Faith Lutheran Church, 835 Hastings Ranch Drive, have responded to an invitation to organize a "Mr. and Mrs. Club."

The Saturday evening event centered around a progressive "travel dinner," which began at 6:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bock, 828 San Simeon Drive, Arcadia. Assisting the hosts in serving the first course were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Eiken and Mr. and Mrs. James Ottosen.

From the "Port of Los Angeles," the group traveled to the "Isle of Capri," the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Zeit, 439 W. Orange Grove, Sierra Madre, where the dinner was served. Assisting the hosts were Mr. and Mrs.

Clagnoe Dreher and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Swanson. Group singing was led by Accompanist Kenneth Eiken.

Desert and entertainment were enjoyed at "Honolulu," the pool and garden of Mr. and Mrs. Don Alsop, 785 Hastings Ranch Drive. Assisting the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. J. Cranor Richter and Mr. and Mrs. Neal Ludwig.

The 66 people in attendance resolved to meet for a social activity each month to further Christian acquaintanceship and fellowship.

Elected president were Mr. and Mrs. John Bemis, 1654 Perkins Drive, Arcadia; secretary-treasurer, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stedman, 103 N. Lima, Sierra Madre.

LOVE BROWNIES?

Love brownies? Nearly everybody does.

A good brownie is a moist, fudgy bar-type cookie that is almost, but not quite, chewy. And everybody can learn to bake them perfectly.

"First things first" is good baking technique that goes for brownies, too. So first read the recipe carefully to know what to do when.

Next collect the utensils and ingredients you'll need. Then measure, mix and bake according to directions.

You'll have wonderful brownies. And they will be especially to make with these recipes.

SAUCEPAN BROWNIES

1/2 C. sifted flour
1/2 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
2 sq. unsweetened chocolate
2 Tbsp. butter or margarine
1 C. sugar
1/2 tsp. vanilla
2 eggs
1/2 C. coarsely chopped walnuts

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Put chocolate and butter into a 1 1/2 qt. saucepan. Heat over low flame to melt chocolate and butter. Remove from heat and stir in sugar and vanilla. Add eggs, one at a time, and beat well. Blend in sifted dry ingredients and walnuts. Spread batter in oiled 8x8x2 in. baking pan. Bake at 350° about 30 min. (Top crust should lose its gloss and a slight imprint will be left when you touch crust lightly with finger.) Let cool on rack for 8 to 10 min. Cut brownies in squares, remove from pan and finish cooling on rack.

MACARON BROWNIES

1/2 C. sifted flour
1/2 tsp. baking powder
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 C. butter or margarine
1 sq. unsweetened chocolate
2 Tbsp. honey
1/4 C. brown sugar, firmly packed
1/2 tsp. vanilla
2 eggs
1/2 C. chopped walnuts

Sift together flour, baking powder, and salt. Put butter and chocolate into a 1 1/2 qt. saucepan. Heat over low flame to melt chocolate and butter. Take from heat and stir in honey, brown sugar and vanilla. Add eggs one at a time, beating thoroughly after each addition. Mix in sifted dry ingredients and walnuts. Spread batter in oiled 8 x 8 x 2 in. baking pan. Bake at 350° for 20 min. Spread with Macaroon Topping and continue baking at 350° for 20 min. Cool slightly before cutting in bars and removing to rack to cool.

MACARON TOPPING

1 egg white
1/4 C. sugar
Pinch of salt
1 tsp. butter
1/2 tsp. almond
1/4 C. flaked coconut

Put all ingredients in upper pan of double boiler. Mix thoroughly. Cook, stirring constantly, over boiling water for 3 min. Drop by teaspoonsfuls over top of partly baked brownies and spread gently with tip of knife or small spatula. (You can't spread this topping evenly, so don't try.)

(Advertisement) LUTHERAN MISSION BELL

OUR LUTHERAN mission, along with thousands of American Lutheran churches, is looking forward to publication of a new Service Book and Hymnal which has just gone to press and should be in our hands late this year or early in 1958. The new book, the joint production of five Lutheran denominations, will be used by more than two-thirds of Lutherans in the United States. It includes more than 600 hymns and a wide selection of worship services reflecting the rich tradition of Lutheranism. There are three complete settings with music for the chief services, which include Holy Communion, and Matins and Vespers, the traditional offices for morning and evening worship. The three settings feature the Scandinavian and German traditions as well as the distinctively American Common Service. The latter is enriched by a full Eucharistic Prayer embodying the Words of Institution, restoring at this point elements whose loss has been felt ever since the Reformation.

THE HYMN selection is unusually representative. It includes chorales from German, Scandinavian and Finnish sources, many appearing in new translations. In addition, there is a full range of English and American hymns, selections from the Geneva Psalter, the Moravians and other Reformed sources, and even one spiritual. When we think of how much the devotional life of a congregation centers around its books of worship and song, we can appreciate the need for this modern hymnal and rejoice in the news that it soon will be in our hands.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY—Back of every hymn we sing is an idea from the mind of its writer. He had something to say to God, or about God, or desired to express a religious idea. Hymns include prayers, creeds, gospel stories, anthems of praise, religious experience, confessions of sin and failure. In our new Lutheran hymnal we have expressions of all kinds of religious ideas and experiences. These are of great value for us as means of expressing our own religious life. We sing our hymns best by studying the words thoughtfully, perhaps in moments for the service to begin. And as we sing we try to put ourselves in tune with the thought of the writer of the hymn, until the words become expressions of our own personal ideas and feelings. We thank God that the Lutheran church is one that enjoys singing!

Yours Faithfully,
REV. RAY E. HANSEN
United Lutheran Pastor

'Back-to-Work' Theme Marks Fall Church Season

"Back-to-work" will be observed in earnest next week at Faith Lutheran Church, 835 Hastings Ranch Drive, according to Rev. A. Hesse, pastor of the congregation.

The Sunday School session at 9:15 will take special note of the fact that it is "Back-to-School Week." The summer film program will end with the showing of a sound film on "Palestine," presenting both the ancient and modern country in which Jesus Christ was born and lived.

A "Back-to-Work" message will be presented by the pastor in the 10:30 Sunday service. Since September is being observed by the congregation as "Christian Education Month," all sermon themes are stressing the importance of deepening and broadening the Christian convictions and faith of the Lord's people.

On Monday morning at 9, the opening service of the Pasadena Lutheran School will be held at First Lutheran Church, 808 N. Los Robles in Pasadena. Faith Lutheran, together with First and Mt. Olive Lutheran Churches of

New Lutheran Church Plans Altar Building

Plans for building an altar are being gathered from several sources. Rev. Ray E. Hansen, United Lutheran mission pastor, said yesterday. The altar will be built of wood by volunteers in time for use at the first worship service of the new congregation this fall.

The mission will hold services temporarily in the newly-remodeled hall of the Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

After plans are received, men of the church who like to do woodwork will be invited to decide on the drawing best suited for the local church, and then will construct the altar.

"We have found that an altar becomes more meaningful when it is built by the congregation, especially by those who lend their hands and skill in its construction," Pastor Hansen said.

The congregation soon will set the date for the first worship service, probably early in October. A few weeks after church services begin, Sunday School and Bible classes will be organized for tots, children, teen-agers, young adults, couples and those in their sunset years.

Beth Israel Men's Club Plans Dinner

The Men's Club of the Foothill Jewish Community Center of Temple Beth Israel will hold a dinner meeting Sept. 16, starting at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Charles Lapson, 625 W. Foothill Blvd., Arcadia.

Following dinner and the program, members of the club will make plans for a membership drive for both the Temple and the club, which sponsors education and recreational projects for youth.

Charles Gindin, club president, or Mr. Lapson may be called for reservations.

LESSON-SERMON

The Sunday Lesson-Sermon subject in all Christian Science churches is "Substance." The Golden Text is from Hosea (12:6), "Turn thou to thy God; keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually."

The man who doesn't want what he hasn't got has all he wants.

News of the Churches

Those interested are warned to bring a sweater and a sack lunch and $2 for the day's activities. The group will return to the church about 9 p.m.

THE SECOND leadership training session will be held next Tuesday evening, Sept. 17. Rev. John De Saegher of the Valley Baptist Church of Burbank will speak on the "Personal Touch."

"Necessity of Success" will be the subject of the Sunday service, Sept. 15 at 11 a.m. by Dr. Ethel Bernhart at the Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 778 S. Rosemead Blvd., Pasadena.

Stiff Driving Laws Listed By Auto Club

A record number of Vehicle Code amendments went into effect Wednesday, Sept. 11, the Automobile Club of Southern California reminded motorists.

To discuss the most significant of the 236 amendments which were signed into law during the past legislative session, the Club's legal staff met with more than 100 Southernland judges, prosecuting attorneys and enforcement officers.

A Club spokesman said the changes considered most important in their effect upon motorists are:

1. REVISION of the left-turn rule, which places a greater responsibility on the person turning left to yield the right-of-way to oncoming traffic. The left-turner must yield to any vehicle which constitutes a hazard at any time during the turning movement.

2. Increasing the distance at which turning signals must be given to 100 feet; the former requirement was 50 feet.

3. Changing the prima facie speed limit in school zones to 25 mph; formerly it was 15 mph.

4. Stiffening of drunk driving laws. When no injury results, the minimum fine is $250, and for a second offense, both five days in jail and a $250 fine. When injury results, the minimum penalty is both 90 days in jail and a $250 fine.

5. Prohibiting the hanging of souvenirs or other objects on rear-view mirrors or elsewhere if they impair the driver's vision through the windshield.

THE CLUB also advised motorists that new amendments make it mandatory for the person who parked a vehicle which becomes a runaway vehicle and damages property, or an unattended vehicle, to fulfill all legal requirements as though he were driving at the time of the accident, otherwise he is subject to penalties for hit-and-run.

Driver's license renewal procedures have been changed. Starting Sept. 11 drivers applying for a renewal who have been convicted of two or more moving traffic violations within the two years preceding application for renewal will be eligible for only a two-year license. A better driving record will make him eligible for a five-year license.

Under the new law the license expiration date will be the same as the driver's birth date, a measure intended to help motorists remember when to renew their licenses, the Club said.

Motorists will be permitted to apply for renewal within six months before the expiration date. Failure to renew within 30 days after expiration of a license will limit the license to three years.

Faith is the hope that the future is what the past might have been, but was not.

The way of the transgressor is seldom realized until viewed from behind bars.

Micrometals -- Unique Firm West of Chicago

By Marjorie Parker

Micrometals? What? Where? Who?

Well, to back in, the who is Joe Barden, a Sierra Madrean and a graduate in mechanical engineering from Purdue. Five years ago he founded Micrometals, first at 52 E. Montecito and then in its present quarters two doors down the street. That takes care of where.

But what is Micrometals? That's a good question. It is a firm engaged in manufacturing powdered metal products. In fact it is the only company west of Chicago so engaged.

About 25 years ago, as electronics moved into more and more demanding production, a problem arose in the use of high frequencies of electrical energy. When high frequencies go through a piece of iron, energy is lost largely through heat. Solution to the problem was the discovery that the use of powdered iron minimized such losses.

WHY? IN THE simplest words Mr. Barden could muster up, this is why:

"It was found that in powdered metal pieces, energy losses are confined to each small particle of iron. The sum of losses in the whole body is then reduced in comparison to losses occurring in a simple iron piece."

Powdered metal is procured through chemical precipitation or made by an electrolytic process—and there are 30 different grades with different electro-magnetic properties.

Micrometals purchases the purest commercial grade, processes the dun-colored powder with addition of a plastic and then presses it, cold, into specified shapes.

The actual manufacturing process is pretty interesting. The powder, mixed, is dribbled into a funnel which feeds directly into the specially designed press.

IN ONE action a small object is made and drops into a container. A batch of these objects is carried off to a low temperature oven where it is heated to cure the plastic which binds the metal powders together. After this, each piece is varnished or color-coated if necessary.

Powdered metal parts are used in almost all communications devices; radio, radar, television and aircraft because of their property of shielding against magnetic interference.

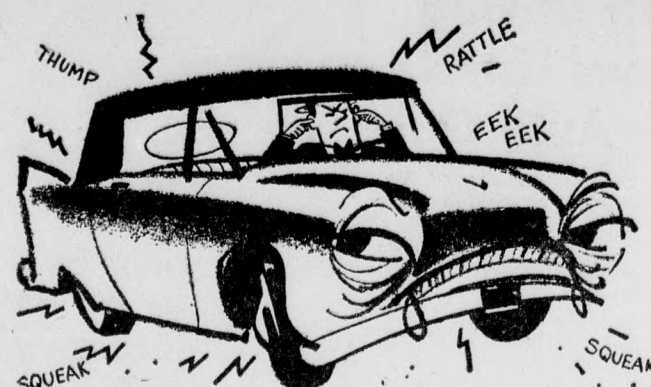

Hence Mr. Barden, who does the selling, supplies mainly the instrument makers of California because the electronic industry is so centered here.

JOE BARDEN started in the manufacturing business because of long experience with a firm making the special powdered metal presses. Also because the electronic industry has to be supplied with such material and he might as well be the supplier.

He has five employees and a plant stretching out behind the offices that houses eight presses ranging from a tidy four-ton one to a behemoth in the corner that exerts 40-ton pressure.

Are there any more questions?

NEED A NEW WATER HEATER?

1. CHOOSE GAS! 98 out of 100 have... because Gas heats water three times faster—easily keeps ahead of washing machines, dish washers and growing families. Gas costs less, too!

2. CHOOSE THE RIGHT SIZE! Too small a heater gets over-worked—doesn't last as long nor serve you as well. Your plumber's approved sizing chart shows the proper size heater for your family.

3. CHOOSE QUALITY! One good way to tell a quality Gas water heater that won't rust is to look for the Verified Long Life Seal shown here... or to insist on a ten-year warranty when you order. You may buy your new heater on convenient terms—even arrange credit and financing over the telephone with your plumber.

D. F. Sander To Speak On Orchids

David F. Sander, director of the well known Sanders Ltd. of England and Belgium will address fanciers of Southern California at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel tomorrow evening at 8.

Sanders Ltd. was founded in 1874 at St. Albans, England by the late H. F. C. Sanders, V.M.H. The second generation of this family is carrying on the traditions established by the founder.

Orchid plants of which there are 20,000 species are collected from all parts of the world and from these, many fine hybrids have been produced.

Although the gathering, in the ballroom of the hotel, is sponsored by the San Gabriel Orchid Hobbyists, all orchid growers both amateur and professional will be interested in attending. This meeting is open to anyone who is interested in knowing about orchids.

LOOKING FOR SMOG CLUES—One of the first discoveries leading to the identification of motor vehicle exhausts as a major culprit in the formation of smog was the determination that smog-filled air in Los Angeles produces a "cracking" of rubber products. In the atmosphere, gasoline vapors react chemically with other contaminants to form ozone—a gas which, in high concentrations, can produce such damage.

Deadline Due For Dog Tags

Deadline for purchasing dog licenses is Oct. 1, according to local police. After that date a $2 penalty is automatically attached to the license fee.

License for a male is $2; female $4; spayed female $2. Dog tags must be procured at the Police Department in City Hall.

People who can't get down to business seldom get up in the world.

VILLA
VIEWSBy Toni Maurin
SYcamore 7-9634

"I could have danced all night"—Once again the Old House Road neighbors proved that people are the same wherever you go, and isn't it nice to enjoy those around you?

More than 60 of the local gentry got together last Saturday night for our second annual street dance held in the dead-end turn around.

The street was gaily decorated overhead with Japanese lanterns and torches.

Spaghetti simmered on the various and sundry barbecues and the many tables were laden with goodies to go with it. We had the "Moon Glows," a seven piece band with a piano that started playing at the bottom of the street, heralding the late-comers.

They played lots of singing music, as well as several game types and dance music. All in all, people had a wonderful time in spite of the fact that they could hardly walk the next day after dancing on slanting asphalt all evening.

I believe it was as much fun the next day as we cleaned up the street again and rehearsed the night before.

Barbara Healy
By Joan Kaponya
ELgin 5-2015

Hi! Are all of you ready for school yet? Just live it up now, friends, because school will start in a few days.

I suppose some of you know that Barbara Healy went to her old home town in Illinois? They sent the baggage seven days ahead by train. When they arrived the Healys went to claim their luggage. The baggage man said:

"Oh, that stuff!"

The man took them to the station basement, where Barbara says they also saw coffins. Anyway, the fellow handed them some old looking, burnt, wet, soggy, black, almost unrecognizable luggage. The boxcar had burned. Few clothes were wearable.

So off they went on a shopping tour which didn't make Barbara feel bad at all. Barb and family had a swell time, in spite of the misfortune.

BALBOA, as we have reported most of the summer, was a favorite vacation spot for friends, and Sharon Knick-Krehm was another who enjoyed it with her family. She reports a glorious time.

Linda Reavis is spending a week at Balboa, too. See what I mean? Marshalls and their families sure do seem to like it down there. And why not?

MEXICO CITY! What a wonderful place to go for a trip. Eleven girls had a three-week vacation in the fabulous city. They stayed with families down there that belong to Rotary. They went swimming and touring for day-time activities, and for evening entertainment they attended parties and dances. The girls are Kathy Griffith, Wanda Atkins, Carolyn Berry, Mary Dean Bowler, Mary Ann Hynes, Carolyn Hawke, Karen Hedman, Lynett Rankin, Carol Robertson, Jan Sartori and Carol Siechert.

KAREN MORRIS and her family (Earl Morris) are staying down at Balboa until the day before school starts. What a tan Karen will have. She and her father won the second place cup in their sailing race in the Labor Day Regatta down at Bal. Another trophy to add to their collection of sailing winnings.

BRAD QUICK had Doug Albert as his houseguest. Doug was born and reared in Pakistan and is now attending college in North Carolina. As Doug has never been swimming in the Pacific Ocean, Brad took him

New Principal Takes
Eugene Field Office Monday

Dr. Joseph Michaels, new principal, will greet some 725 pupils on their return to Eugene Field classes Monday. And, according to Dr. Michaels, they will find little evidence of the tremendous damage caused by vandals at the school two weeks ago.

Dr. Michaels, who has been in the Pasadena school system 10 years and comes to Field from San Rafael, had great praise for his office and custodial staff, in restoring the school in time for the opening.

"I personally feel deeply indebted to Field's excellent staff, which has put forth yeoman effort in restoring the building to its former condition," he said, particularly congratulating Mrs. Vendla Vermillion, secretary, and Sam Melicon, custodian chief. He said the central office and maintenance shop also has cooperated fully in the restoration.

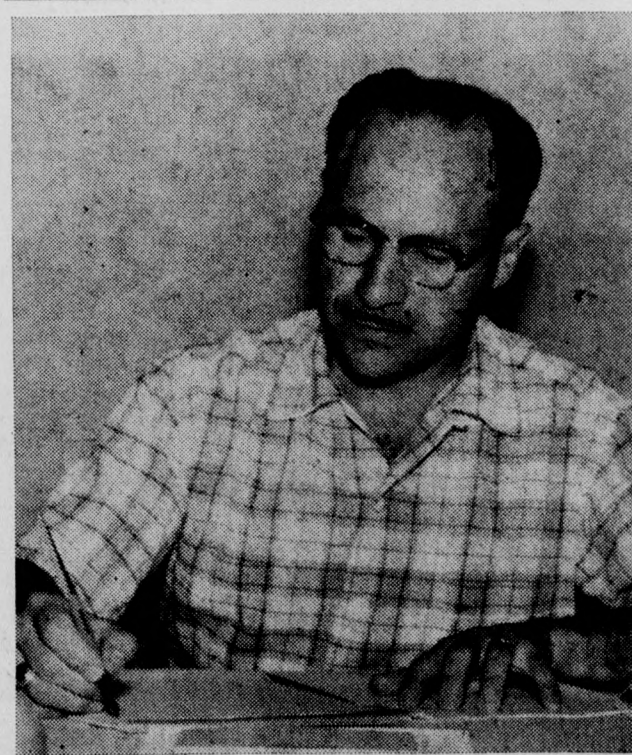

Dr. Michaels said vital records are virtually intact and all class assignments have been made, despite the fact that the office was rendered a shambles by vandals believed to have been two jeans-wearing, crew-cut boys who spent the Sunday afternoon of Sept. 1 doing a thorough wrecking job.

Records were scattered about, literally splattered with mimeograph ink and doused with the fire hose. File cases were overturned and drawers emptied. A fire truck spent part of Labor Day pumping out the flooded basement.

"Unquestionably the children who did this must be emotionally sick," Dr. Michaels said in expressing his keen disappointment. "I hope the parents of these children will provide the type of therapy the children need."

Dr. Michaels lives with his wife and four children at 2600 Catherine Rd., Altadena.

Your Health . . .

Beware of the Remedies For High Blood Pressure

This is the second in a series of articles discussing drugs and devices which informed sources—the medical profession, government authorities and reputable medicine manufacturers—agree should not be sold to the public for the purposes of self-medication.

Previously discussed were drugs and devices for baldness, mole removers, eyelash growers, rheumatism and wrinkle removers.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE—High blood pressure, or hypertension, is not a disease, but may be a symptom of various diseases or disordered conditions. There are no known substances which may be properly advertised for the self-treatment of high blood pressure.

Garlic tablets have been offered for that purpose. Although credited with magical properties by the ancients, garlic has no therapeutic value in the treatment of high blood pressure or its symptoms.

PILES—Ointments and other external applications may be of value in relieving soreness, itching or burning caused by piles or hemorrhoids, but do not constitute a cure, remedy or competent treatment for the condition. Serious cases may require surgery or other specialized treatment. Do not attempt self-treatment of bleeding piles, because bleeding may indicate a serious condition requiring prompt medical attention. Laxative preparations should not be used for the self-treatment of piles.

SINUS DISORDERS—Sinusitis, or sinus trouble, is an inflammation or infection of the sinuses or internal cavities of the skull.

It may be associated with numerous other afflictions. While there are products which may afford temporary relief of symptoms such as nasal congestion, pain or discomfort, the cure or successful treatment of the condition requires medical attention. Short-wave diathermy devices should not be used for the self-treatment of sinus disorders.

HORMONES—The value of male hormones in the treatment of impotence is very limited and the potentialities for danger in such products are so great that they should not be used in self-treatment.

The Food and Drug Administration conducted an extensive investigation of the use and abuse of female and male hormones, concluding that in its opinion, such hormones could not be safely used for therapeutic purposes except under the supervision of a physician.

BUST DEVELOPERS—There is no known preparation, system of exercise or mechanical device which may be properly offered to the public to increase the size of the female breast.

Estrogenic (hormone) preparations cannot be used with safety except under a physician's supervision, and then may produce satisfactory results only in a minority of cases.

Garden Notes...

Californians Can Plant Shrubs Any Day of Year

California gardeners, who enjoy so many of nature's blessings, count the ability to plant shrubs any time of the year as one of the greatest. Unlike our eastern neighbors who cannot even dream of planting during their hot summers and cold winters, we Californians can transplant shrubs from containers on almost any day of the year.

Planting from containers is becoming increasingly popular in California for many reasons. One of the most important is that it is just as simple as planting carries much of its environment with it to the garden.

All the gardener then needs to do is be sure that the soil into which the roots will stretch for food is a healthy mixture.

AFTER THE gardener selects his plant he should request the nurseryman to cut down the sides of the container to facilitate removal. If the home gardener does not intend to transplant immediately, however, he should make other arrangements for having the container sides cut.

At home, the gardener should first prepare the soil into which he is going to place the shrub by mixing the soil from the hole with peat moss and humus. A mixture of one-third soil, one-third peat and one-third humus is generally acceptable.

Making certain the hole is sufficiently large to comfort ably accept the ball which surrounds the roots of his shrub, the gardener then places some of the soil mixture in the bottom of the hole and then places the uncanned shrub on it. The level of the shrub in the soil should be the same as it was in the container. This can be assured by placing the soil ring on the stalk or trunk of the shrub at ground level.

After the shrub has been correctly positioned in the hole, tamp the dirt mixture around it firmly and then water sufficiently to settle the soil and to remove air pockets.

ANOTHER REASON for the popularity of container transplants stems from the fact that they can be moved any time during the year. This makes it a simple matter for a home owner to follow his landscape plan gradually, instead of having to do it all in one month. This is a great advantage for those gardeners who have only a limited time to devote to the garden. And for the new home owner this is ideal since he can begin his landscaping at any time during the year and continue gradually as time and budget permit.

Another advantage of buying shrubs in containers is that they need not be planted at once.
